

The Great Escape

10/12/2010

The Great Escape Clergy Retreat, set for October 12 -14 at Antiochian Village, Ligonier will feature the teaching and talents of nationally known storyteller and teacher, Tracy Radosevic. Tracy holds a DMin from Wesley Seminary. She is an Adjunct Professor at Wesley as well as the Ecumenical Institute of Theology in Baltimore. She is also artist in residence at the Mt. Vernon Place United Methodist Church in Baltimore. Tracy received her Masters of Religious Education from Duke Divinity School and her BA in elementary education from Grove City College.

Seminars will include Ins and Outs of Biblical Storytelling, Communicating the Good News in the Digital Age. The title for the retreat is The Word Made Flesh. Workshops will include Biblical exegesis and analysis for storytelling, and communicating the Good News for the Digital Age. 1.5 CEU's will be offered for this event.

Register by calling Antiochian Village 724-238-3677 or emailing info@antiochianvillage.org

Cost is 260.00 for a single and 200.00 for a double room. Roommates are not assigned.

The cost is the same as last year.

Pastors are urged to apply for continuing ed funds through BOM.