

2010 PREACHING SEMINARS in the ERIE-MEADVILLE DISTRICT

Pastors: Don't miss this opportunity to grow in the area of your ministry that touches the most people. Pastors may receive up to 1 CEU (.25 CEU for each session).

Lay Speakers are welcome. Certified lay speakers who attend all four seminars may meet the requirements for recertification.

Thursday, June 17 at Edinboro UMC (113 High St. Edinboro `16412)

A Picture that Preaches a Thousand Words: The Use of Media in the Preaching Event

Led by John Zimmerman

Wednesday, June 30 at Glenwood UMC in Erie (2931 Myrtle St. Erie 16508)

Effective Preaching to a New Generation: Reaching Young Adults

Led by Steve Bane

Thursday, July 22 at Edinboro UMC (113 High St. Edinboro 16412)

The Word, the Way and the World: Preaching the Cost of Discipleship in the 21st Century

Led by John Spahr

Wednesday, July 28 at Saegertown UMC (620 Euclid Ave Saegertown 16433)

Can We Do That? Preaching in a New and Creative Way

Led by Chris Morgan

About the Presenters:

All presenters are gifted preachers, each addressing the art of preaching from different perspectives.

John Zimmerman serves Corry: First UMC, creatively using the media and the internet to reach persons of all ages while connecting their ministry to people all over the world.

Steve Bane serves New Stanton UMC which focuses on evangelism with a sensitivity to the needs of young adults and ministry beyond the walls of the church.

John Spahr, serving Stone UMC in Meadville, has long been recognized as a gifted, theologically deep, challenging and articulate preacher in our conference.

Chris Morgan, leads the growing alternative worship service at Christ UMC in Bethel Park where he serves as the associate pastor of the largest congregation in our conference.

Registration:

Contact Wanda at the Erie-Meadville district office (814 425 3568 harbison3@zoominternet.net) to register for these free seminars.