

PASTORS' ACADEMY MAY 5-7

REIMAGINING THE GENERAL RULES

AT OLMSTED MANOR RETREAT CENTER

This event is an intensive learning and growth experience offered annually for pastors. Pastors of every denomination are invited to join us as we grow into better preachers and encourage each other in ministry.

John Wesley's General Rules: Do no harm. Do Good. Attend to the ordinances of God. This workshop will explore a creative reading of these rules for life and consider how we can flourish while still helping others.

$300 INCLUDES PRIVATE ROOM, ALL MEALS, & TUITION

REV. DR. KAREN D. SCHIEB

Rev. Dr. Karen is an Emerita Professor of Pastoral Care and Pastoral Theology, Candler School of Theology, Emory University and a retired clergy member of the North Georgia Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. She served as a pastor, pastoral counselor and part-time chaplain before beginning a 27-year career as a professor.

She is the author of three books, plus several articles and chapters. Her most recent book is Attend to Stories: How to Flourish in Ministry (2018). Her research and writing explore the stories we tell about ourselves, God, and the world. Karen now lives on Skidaway Island, just south of Savannah, GA. She enjoys playing pickleball, walking along the marsh, birdwatching with her husband Jonathan, knitting, cardmaking and other crafts.
