

WORSHIP TRAINING JUNE 24-26

CONTEMP. WORSHIP THE ANCIENT WAY

AT OLMSTED MANOR RETREAT CENTER

At this retreat, contributors to the book Flow: The Ancient Way to Do Contemporary Worship will lead a practical study to help churches plan and implement passionate and invigorating worship. Re-think what the "official" or recommended order of worship is truly suggesting in order to plan/lead a service of Word and Table that feels genuinely relevant and attuned to your congregation's culture.

$300 includes private room, all meals, & tuition

REV. DR. GLENN STALLSMITH

Rev. Dr. Stallsmith is called to be a teaching pastor to the church, seeking to add meaning and understanding to celebrations of the sacraments and services of the Word. He earned his Th.D. (Doctor of Theology) degree at the Divinity School at Duke University, where he studied Liturgy and Theology and the Arts. His dissertation focused on a theology of corporate prayer:

"Praying Liturgically in the Megachurch: Towards an Augustinian Model for Corporate Christian Prayer." Glenn is an ordained UMC Elder in full connection with the North Carolina Annual Conference. He serves as the pastor of Oxford UMC in Oxford, NC.

Prior to serving as a pastor, Glenn and his spouse Sarah, a public school music teacher and choir director, worked as ethnomusicology consultants in the Philippines.

WAYS TO REGISTER

-  Go to www.olmstedmanor.org/events
-  Call (814) 945-6512
-  Mail form below to
PO Box 8 Ludlow, PA 16333

EVENT REGISTRATION FORM

Worship Training - June 24-26, 2024

Name: _____ Phone: _____

Email: _____

Address: _____

Accommodation or dietary needs: _____

Rooming preference (select): Private (full event price) Roommate (receives double-room discount)

My roommate's name: _____ OR Assign me a roommate: () male () female

Please include check for $25 deposit to Olmsted Manor Retreat Center or we will call you to pay over the phone.

