

WORSHIP TRAINING AUG. 11-13

WORSHIP REFRESH

AT OLMSTED MANOR RETREAT CENTER

Discover fresh energy as we explore the art of Christian worship. Explore liturgical Year C through on-site worship, creative activity, collaboration, and learning. Be ready to discover new aspects of worship planning and implementation as participants join together in creating liturgies and prayers to take home and use in your local church setting.

$225 INCLUDES PRIVATE ROOM, ALL MEALS, & TUITION

REV. ALYCE WEAVER DUNN

Rev. Weaver Dunn is a musician, pastor, and a committed follower of Jesus who is currently serving as the Director of Connectional Ministries for the WPAUMC. Alyce's ministry background includes 22 years serving in local churches and 14 years serving in Conference level positions. One of the highlights of her ministry is 30 years as dean of Music, Art & Creative Drama at Wesley Woods. Alyce is married to Rev. Keith Dunn - together they enjoy hiking, traveling, and attending Pittsburgh sports and cultural events.

REV. TRACY COX

For over 20 years as a pastor, Tracy's ministry and leadership has lived into the divine truth that we are not alone. God is with us. In fact, God is with all people and all of creation at all times. Leading and planning worship that engages the community in which she serves is a great passion for Tracy. She is married to Rev. Greg Cox, and is mom to three daughters. Tracy and Greg enjoy traveling and having time to read every historical marker along the way, attending concerts at Heinz Hall or high school auditoriums, and following Pittsburgh Sports teams.
