Nature & Spirituality Retreat

with Rev. Beth Jones

Nestled in the Allegheny National Forest, surrounded by gardens, trails, and water features, find the perfect setting to discover all God has to show you through Creation. Pastor and Naturalist Beth Jones will lead "Finding Hope in the Wilderness." In our daily lives, in our encounters with the natural world, and throughout scripture, we often see how God reveals hope in the most unlikely places. We invite you to come wander in the wilderness for a while and discover how vulnerability, questions, and creativity can lead us to lean into a hope that sustains.

$240

Check-in: 3-5PM Thursday in Groves Lodge    Departure: 2PM Saturday
Pricing includes private hotel-style room, six meals, and tuition.

Rev. Beth Jones

Beth Jones grew up in Central PA and has served for almost 25 years as a pastor in the Susquehanna (former Wyoming) Conference of the UMC. In 2018, she began serving as Director of Deep Green Journey, a ministry that utilizes retreats, workshops, and hiking/backpacking excursions to connect people to God through their experience in the wild. She is a certified Nature and Forest Therapy Guide.

Beth enjoys leading groups to discover a restorative connection with the natural world. She believes in the power and mystery of wilderness to help people recover greater health, peace, creativity, and vision in their lives and to strengthen their relationship to God, to others, and with themselves.
